

SEÑA 2018 AWARDED PERFECT 100 POINTS

Seña, Chile's first Icon wine, has received the world's highest recognition from James Suckling, who awarded the 2018 vintage with perfect 100 points.

This outstanding recognition marks a new milestone in the history of Seña, achieving 100 points for the second time since its inaugural release. Previously, the 2015 vintage was also awarded with a perfect 100 points score in May 2017. This perfect score consolidates the Aconcagua Valley and Chile among the most prestigious world-class appellations.

Following his latest trip to Chile in January, James Suckling just released his Chile's report entitled "Chile's value offering is established – but is there more room for greatness?" dedicating top praise to the 2018 vintage of Seña: "This is a very thoughtful Seña that shows unique aromas of warm earth, mushrooms and conifer, turning to dark berries and black olives. The palate is more glamorous with ultra-fine tannins that envelop your palate. Shows power and vibrancy at the end. Toned muscles. It's a very intellectual wine that harkens back to the 2015. Blend of 55% Cabernet Sauvignon, 18% Malbec, 15% Carmenere, 7% Cabernet Franc and 5% Petit Verdot."

Eduardo Chadwick, owner of Viña Seña, commented: "Seña was created under our vision that we could make a wine that shows Chile's full potential, a wine that would be welcomed in time, among the world's First Growths. Over the past 25 years Seña has shown a consistent trajectory of quality and excellence. I am delighted that James has recognized our beautiful Seña 2018 and awarded it with a perfect score. This is a great acknowledgement for Seña and our team in the quest to consolidate the Aconcagua Valley as a world-class appellation."

Francisco Baettig, Seña's Winemaker, added: "The 2018 vintage of Seña is one of the most captivating vintages ever seen for this wine. An elegant and yet very attractive wine, generously offering fresh and juicy fruits that reminds of blueberries, raspberries, some spices and elegant Cuban cigar box notes. Seña 2018 is a wine that accomplishes that unique balance between power besides elegance and tension, all framed by some very fine-grained tannins that speak of an extremely balanced wine. I believe we are beholding one of the greatest vintages ever crafted in the 25 years of Seña's history."

"It's a very intellectual wine that harkens back to the 2015."
